

WORTHING NEWS - APRIL

At the time of going to press, unfortunately we are unable to let you know of the success and winners from our Annual Duck Race which we held on Easter Sunday. However, watch this space next month for an update!

May we remind you that

Our next Sunday Family Service - following the Book of Common Prayer and Holy Communion will be offered for those that wish to receive this, is on Sunday 10th April at the revised time of 10.30am. This will be led for the first time by our Team Minister, Priest in Charge Sally Kimmis.

We hope that many Worthing parishioners and those from neighbouring villages will come and join us, and of course refreshments will follow which will give everyone an opportunity to meet Sally.

We look forward to seeing you on the 10th.

The constant threat of floods means Morsheda can't grow her own crops or tend her own animals without worrying they'll be washed away. The only work she can get is doing hard manual labour for as little as 74p a day.
